

My design considerations

Your Identity

Why your website matters to me? Why would you prefer a unique approach?

Your website matters to me because you matter to your audience. Also, don't forget that it's probably your first virtual impression on them. A unique design and development process allows you to have an impact and a more memorable presence on the web.

Accessibility / Colors

I always test for color blindness, so that more people can benefit from your website without any issues.

Accessibility / Audio Aid

Yes, I really listen to the website via a Text to Speech Voice Reader
